

Fr. Chris Shadid has a Master of Divinity from Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology. Additionally, he has a Master of Social Work and is a Licensed Social Worker. He works at Antiochian Village as Camp Director and as the Antiochian Archdiocese Department of Camping's Vice-Chair. In addition to serving at AV, Chris works as a therapist providing counseling to individuals, couples, and families of all ages and backgrounds who struggle with a variety of mental health issues. He lives at the Village with his wife Sophia, their son Luke, and their two dogs Belle and Louie..