

Saydeh Karabatis Ph.Dc, born and raised in an Orthodox Christian family from Al-Koura, Lebanon. A Computer Scientist by profession and an enthusiastic church member by nature. She is a PhD Candidate in the Data Science field at UMBC. Her research was sparked by witnessing the surge of illegal migrants reaching the shores of the Greek islands, listening to their stories of abuse they endured at the hands of smugglers, and her empathy to lessen their burdens. Saydeh is married to George. Both are blessed with Yianni and Peter-Nicholas. They are members of St. Mary, Hunt Valley, MD.
